

Split, scatter, erase!
We break down the 100K into $2,000
chunks. Get the guys
to open wallets, now!

Got it, boss. We have 20 people
ready. Everyone transfers from their own wallet!

Mom, I just opened
a wallet, that's all.
I'm withdrawing $2,000 and
handing it over in cash. They even give commission!

Son, something's
not right about this. Hope
there's no fraud
or anything
suspicious

There we go!
Clean and easy.
Here's your $100,
enjoy it.

Uh... Is this even legal?

I've collected
everything, boss.
It all went as planned. No one questioned a thing.

Good. Broken into pieces, we became invisible. But remember... in this game, one mistake
doesn't just mean jail;
if you leave a trace,
everything collapses.
